

Agriculture in a Turbulent Economy: The Credit Crisis

Michigan State University Professor of Agricultural Economics, Dr. David Schweikhardt presents “Agriculture in a Turbulent Economy: The Credit Crisis”.

This webcast presentation will explore what the credit crisis is and what it means for agriculture. This session will examine the origins of the credit crisis, the international dimensions of the problem, and the implications of the crisis for agriculture in 2009 and beyond.

Representatives from Greenstone Farm Credit Services and USDA-Farm Service Agency will also be present to talk about the changing ag economy and what farmers need to be prepared for during the difficult economic times ahead.

When: Thursday February 19th 6:30 – 8:30 PM

Where: Presque Isle County Courthouse in Rogers City

Cost: FREE!

For more information or to register, call the Presque Isle County MSU Extension office at (989) 734-2168.

